Mrs H. Finlayson, from a cottage in Abbotsham, N. Devon
12. 7. '90 Delivered by Mr J. B. Taylor, Bicester

5000

No. 5,000. Inf. provided by Mr. R. Finlayson, Bideford.

1836 Alexander Lauder 1836 - 1921

Recognised artist and architect before establishing business with brother-in-law, William Smith, to make bricks, tiles and architectural earthenware in 1846.

1846 Developed to produce decorative tiles and ornamental pottery.

1888 Pottington works at Barnstaple named Devon Art Pottery and marked Lauder & Smith.

1889 Smith left business but pottery continued, much to the imitation of J. G. A. Brannan (another local pottery)

1900 Lauder left much of the work to his staff.

1914 Pottery closed.

Lauder was Mayor of Barnstaple 1885 - 1886

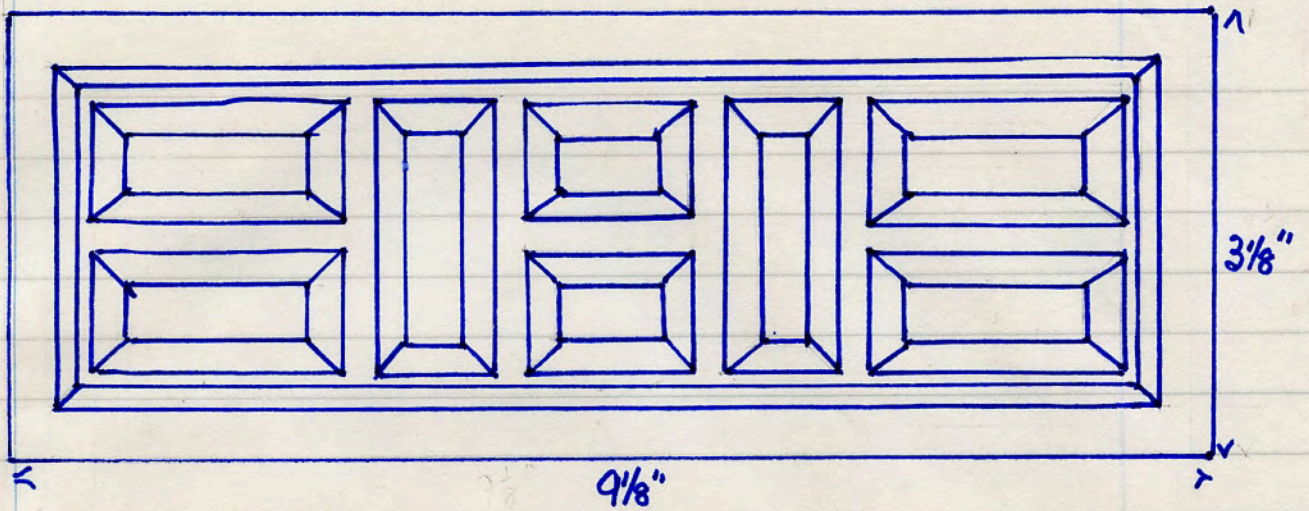

Much more data in David & Charles Reprints - published in 1971 of Strong's Industries of North Devon 1889.

Barnstaple Museum.

Plenty of Lauder & Smith, and Lauder pottery, but only one L & S brick, undecorated.

Brannan's Pottery still exists 1991 but not owned by the family.
